Scheduled "in the national interest" extra-judicial executions are being carried out in North Caucasus, the head of the human rights committee of Kabardino-Balkaria republic told Interfax. "There is an issue that is quite possible because there have been other cases in the past when the security agencies of the Russia Federation have sent out people to meet with their colleagues of Russia's national security agencies abroad (in terrorist suspects)," noted Valery Fedorov. "During this time some extrajudicial executions are carried out. This issue can be resolved through diplomatic channels. These individuals can then be extradited to the Russian Federation." The governor of Kabardino-Balkaria is currently in Rome, where he is meeting with UN experts. The request for such a meeting was made by Yury Khudoyarov, Kabardino-Balkaria's Representative on Security Matters to the UN. In Kabardino-Balkaria executions are carried out for many reasons, but the most frequent ones are "running away from the law" and "suspected terrorist activities" along with the "wearing of explosive devices." It is also pointed out that in 2002-2008 there were some 70 people sentenced to death. "The decisions are made on the basis of written instructions from the security authorities of the Russian Federation. On an average, one person is executed a day. In the case of executions, where it's known that a suspect has thrown explosive devices at his relatives, the victim's relatives are contacted and warned. In this case, no one is harmed, but a warning is given. If someone is arrested, then there is no need for a warning," said Fedorov. "I think the statistics on executions in Kabardino-Balkaria are true," he added. Meanwhile, in Kabardino-Balkaria there

What's New In?

AVCHD to DVD Creator is a simple-to-use tool that enables you to turn AVCHD movies into DVDs, as the name suggests. It doesn't include complicated options or configuration parameters, making it accessible to all types of users. Hassle-free installation and clear-cut interface After a swift and uneventful setup procedure, you are greeted by a user-friendly interface made from a modern window with a well-organized layout that invites you to open AVCHD movies from .avchd, .mts, .m2ts, .ts, .tp or .trp format. Batch processing is supported, which means that you can create a list with multiple movies to merge into a single DVD movie. Preview and trim videos The application lets you preview clips in a built-in media player, seek a position by moving a slider, pause playback and check out the current and total play time, as well as to cut clips into smaller parts by indicating the start and end position. You can change the order of the videos in the task list, and customize the DVD menu by adding background pictures, music, menu a menu title, a button style, and a frame. Personalize the DVD menu and configure burn options When it comes to the background, the tool has some samples prepared but also gives you the possibility to assign local files, provided that they have the .png, .jpg, .bmp or .gif format. Music can be imported from .mp3, .wav, .aac, .ac3, .amr, .mp2, .flac, .ogg, .aiff, .mka, .ra, .ape or .wma extensions. It's possible to set the preferred font color and settings for the menu title, as well as to explore a generous list with button styles and frames supplied by AVCHD to DVD Creator's gallery. Before proceeding with the DVD burning operation, you can preview the project to make sure everything is in order and go back to make any necessary adjustments. The app enables you to establish the disc label, destination drive, aspect ratio (4:3 or 16:9) and TV system type (NTSC or PAL). Plus, you can compile an ISO image to any favorite output directory instead of burning a DVD disc. Download: AVCHD to DVD Creator - Full Version AVCHD to DVD Creator is a simple-to-use
