Elden Ring plot summary:

In a land between reality and the mythology of the Elden legend, young and noble warrior by the name of Tarnished was trapped within a dimension, having fallen prey to a vile curse. However, their chance to escape is suddenly lost. Perhaps because they only want to save the life of the girl they had been raised together with, they all took a vow and put aside everything else. Tarnished accepted to become a gentle traveling servant, while the others swore to protect him. Yet "the oath that I have taken...", Tarnished says, "I must get rid of the cursed item that possesses me."

Tarnished returns to the world of reality, where his friends reunite along the roadside and set out on an adventure to resolve his curse and return home. However, as they begin to prepare for the road ahead, the living and the dead converge. In this place is where the great power of the Elden Ring begins to manifest.

The clash of life and death leads to a struggle of beliefs and magic. Four brave servants of the Elden Ring will face their own trials and return to the comfort of the blessed land of Elysium. However, the end is not yet in sight, with the great evils stirring. Will their strength be enough to defeat the enemies to save the girl? Or will everything fall into ruin?
