A Stranger is Alright How many times have you told your significant other (or anyone, really) how much you love them? How many times have you said it to them in so many different ways? Maybe you've gone overboard with your words of love and you're now feeling a little embarrassed? Or maybe you just want to prove how much you love someone without saying too much. Wherever you are in life right now, let's pretend for a moment that this is just as true for you. Today, we ask: What do you do when you find yourself the subject of a Stranger's Love? Today's song is by Jules. Listen to The Stranger's Love - featuring Jules on Spotify! About The Stranger's Love How do you feel when you are on the receiving end of a Stranger's Love? How do you know what to do when you are the subject of a Stranger's Love? Are you crushed? Overwhelmed? Do you want to tell the Stranger how you feel? Do you turn it down because you don't want to be rude? Is a Stranger's Love a special and unexpected gift that you want to accept and appreciate? Or are you too terrified that your feelings will be reciprocated? Whatever is true for you, today, we invite you to share your thoughts, feelings, and experiences. We want to hear them.

Q: Extend class object and how to calculate time for an object I have a class object like this class GameObject: def __init__(self, x, y, z, t): self.x = x self.y = y self.z = z
