Parashara's Light 6.1.Q: Why is this device saying it is not being monitored and why is it only seeing 4 USB-2 ports? I just got a PIXPAK PTV-00 and an X-Fi g-100 sound card but I'm not getting any sound from them. When I plug them in, the first thing it does is tell me "USB device not being monitored" and it doesn't show up at all in Pulse Audio Volume Control. I've checked the cables, PTV is plugged in at the back and the front is USB. I've also got my sound card in the back where it should be plugged in and I've even connected the two cables that came with the sound card to two different USB ports but still no luck. The PTV is getting power but I don't know why I can't get any audio from it. The sound card is working fine in a different laptop though. A: This article by Chris Travers might be worth a read. The PIXPAK PTV-00 has four ports, one headphone and one
