I want to do some free calls via facebook messaging, using my facebook account (no pay fees). Is that possible? In other words, I want to have the same number A: What you are trying to do is called using FaceTime Audio in case you wanted to simply do free calls you could do this. This will be available on IOS 6 and above and also in the App Store. What you are trying to do is called using Facebook Audio and that will not be available until Facebook Messenger is available on iOS. You can download the Facebook app from the store to find out more. A: Facebook has a Phone feature that allows free voice calls on Facebook Messenger between users that have the app. You can also use this with Skype and any other service that works with a phone number. If you have an iPhone, this phone feature is called Phone and you can find the option in the app you downloaded from the app store. Edit: See Facebook's announcement here: . The 2016 Olympic Games will be held in Brazil from August 5th to 21st and the Tokyo 2020 Paralympics will be held from October 6th to 18th. Brazil opens its Paralympic Committee website at www.paratodosouro2016.org.br 2:50 pm: Argentinian triple jump champion Raphael Holzdeppe was cleared of any wrongdoing in the IOC's investigation. He was banned for two years in the aftermath of his positive test for banned steroid stanozolol (5,6 DiProgonoketone). The former World Championships bronze medallist is believed to have taken the tainted substance at the end of 2015. December 12, 2016 7:24 am: The Olympic Council of Ireland (OCI) will receive an IOC invitation for the 2020 Games. The OCI was part of the 2017 decision-making process and was part of the decision-making process for Buenos Aires in 2001 (when they were the OCI). However, the OCI will not be part of the final six-person IOC selection committee for the 2024 and 2028 Games. The head of Irish sport, John Treacy, has worked on both the Tokyo bid and Dublin bid. 6:50 am: The president e79caf774b
