Spain also had a friendly at home, losing 3–1 to Mexico. In the quarter-finals, Spain were drawn against France, who had just eliminated Portugal. After leading 3–0 at half-time, Spain crashed 4–0, with two goals scored in the last 10 minutes of the game. Spain hosted Slovakia in the semi-finals. Only eight minutes were played when Andrés Iniesta tried to reach a cross, and the ball crashed into the back of the Slovakian keeper's head, turning into a goal. It was later discovered that the ball was slightly out of play; while in another German Bundesliga match between VfL Wolfsburg and Hertha BSC, two penalties were awarded against the hosts after the ball appeared to be on the line, but actually wasn't. Meanwhile, in Spain's match, Spain's coach took off his shirt and let it blow in the wind during the match. Despite the win, Spain crashed out of the tournament following a 1–0 loss to France on penalties after the game finished 0–0. In the last international match to be played at the old stadium, Spain played a friendly match at the ground against Portland Timbers of the Major League Soccer, and won 7–0.
